COLUMBIA BALL PARK, PHILA-DELPHIA, May 28.—The champion Athletics returned to-day from a sucd-up in their own garden, at nty-ninth street and Columbia aveaue, in the first of a series of four games with the all-star aggregation m New York. Both teams were acrded a royal welcome, the Athletics cause of the splendid showing they le in foreign lands, the New Yorkuse of the large swaths they nise to cut when once they got

Before leaving for the West, Manager lack said he would be satisfied if he eturned home in the fourth place. He d better than that, and with the team plendid condition, expects to coze ato the place now occupied by Comiskey before many weeks rattle past. While the Knickerbockers did not make such a good showing on the Western lains as the Athletics, Manager Griffith s not in the least cast down. He says has the goods in stock and will deiver with such hastiness when he again joys its advantages. Manager Mack decided to send Plank to cook up the sizzers for the Athletthis afternoon and looked to him to load trouble on the Knickerbockers. Manager Griffith decided that he was ut ripe to chuck over the benders for w York and led himself to the altar. Connor got behind the guns. First Inning.

Davis was passed up on three swipes. Keeler singled to centre and was dead anying to steal second. Fultz singled to left and sneaked second. He tailled on Williams's triple boost to centre. Ganzei was a soft corn for Murphy and Davis. One run.

Hartsell singled to left. Hoffman fanned. Harry Davis's swat to left fell swiely for a sock. Cross popped a foul to Ganzel. Davis singled to centre and Hartsell tailled. Murphy was tagged by Chesbro. One run.

Fight with Abe Attell Declared

Off Until the Middle of Next

(Special to The Evening World.)
BUFFALO, May 28.—"Terry" McGov-rn and Abe Attell, the Frisco featherweight, will battle twenty rounds for the 122-pound championship of the world in

Club of Fort Erie on the night of June 15 This was agreed upon at noon today between Jack Hermann, manager and owner of the club, Sam Harris, representing Terry and Ike Bloom, acting on behalf of Attell, at a meeting held in the City Hotel, where new articles of agreement were drawn up and signed by all three parties and forfeits of $1,000 posted by each for weight and appear-

Sam Harris arrived here early this morning from New York. Ike Bloom came in from Chicago and immediately went to the office of the International Club to await the arrival of Harris.

About 10 o'clock Harris and Bloom accidentally met in one of the sporting resorts, and for fully ten minutes the two managers, without stopping for the customary greeting, waged a war of words, which included challenges and wagers ranging from $1,000 to $10,000.

but when the smoke of the battle van-they soon came to an agreement. Harris showed certificates from physicians n New York which vouched for Terry's lliness. After this point had been settled Bloom told Harris he was anxious to match Attell with Terry. Harris

Then came a stumbling block. Bloom wanted half of Harris's forfeit money of $1,000. Harris said if he took the money he would call everything off.

Finally a compromise was reached whereby Harris agreed to allow Attell $300 for training expenses, and in order to compensate with the club he agreed to pay for the advertising for the fight to come which would not amount to more than $200. "Do you claim McGovern is a featherweight?" thundered

Bloom at one point in the proceedings.

Bloom at one point in the proceedings.
"I do," answered Haris. "Then I'll tell you what I'll do," said Ike. "If you will agree to have Terry make 12 pounds at ring side weight, I will bet you $5,000 even on the side." Harris answered by saying that he would accept the bet, but owing to Terry's illness he feared he would not be able to make that weight in two weeks' time.
